Civic Center Project Sensible Sustainability

New Utility Bill Coming July 1st!!!

July 1 you will see a new look to your Utility Bill including a new account number. Your Finance Department has been processing all utility bills in both our current and new utility billing systems for the last six months, with the goal of a smooth transition to our new system.

Please help us insure all of your information is accurate by closely reviewing your first bill. Although we have literally reviewed each and every one of your accounts for accuracy, your assistance is critical as we make this final transition to the new system. We also ask for your patience during this time and please know our primary goal is excellent customer service and accurate utility bills.

ON-LINE PAYERS: If you pay your bills on-line through your bank, please be sure to update your account number information to the new number.

Thank you from the Finance Department

The City Obtains Approval for Design Build Method for Civic Center

On May 25, City Manager Steve Burkett, City Attorney Craig Ritchie, and Consultant Court Olson made a presentation to the State Project Review Committee requesting that they approve the design build method for the City Hall/Police Station project. The committee determined that the City had qualified consultants and City Staff in place to successfully build with this process.

The design build process allows the City to decide what we can afford to build. The system identifies teams that agree to work within those constraints, and not to exceed the established price. The teams submit proposals for the project based on the criteria supplied to them and within the given price frame. The City has the opportunity to select the team to design and build the facility based on their proposal, experience, competence, and background.

There will be opportunities for the public to review the design proposals in the late summer or early fall.

City of Sequim Welcomes Park Host

The City of Sequim welcomes volunteer David Kolbo as Park Host/Docent for Carrie Blake Park. Kolbo and his wife will be living on-site in a mobile home north of the small dog park on the east end of the park through the middle of September. Kolbo is available to answer questions for park visitors and to assist the City with any issues that may arise at the park. He will be circulating through the park in a bright yellow ball cap and an orange vest.

Kolbo has previous experience as a park host and has most recently hosted at the Gil Gal RV Park in Sequim, where he will return in September.

Please contact Jeff Edwards in the Public Works Department at 681-3443 or jedwards@sequimwa.gov with questions.
